After your holidays, there's FILO!

FILO hopes you all enjoy your holidays and reminds you that the date for the 40th Edition of FILO has been set for the 9th and 10th October 2013 at the Le Stelline Congress Centre in Corso Magenta 61, Milan!

FILO is expecting you with an exciting edition commemorating the 20th anniversary of the event, but above all projected towards the future scene.

The core of the celebrations will be the event on the evening of the 9th of October at the Le Stelline Congress Centre. There will be a dinner during which it will be possible to taste the culinary delicacies of the Biella area. In the FILO lounge it will be possible to relive through images the various editions of FILO in the last twenty years. The evening will conclude with an awards ceremony for the companies who have been the most faithful to FILO.

The past, present and future of FILO cannot be different from the exhibiting firms and their collections, which as usual confirm very high quality products made with care giving special attention to details and an entrepreneurial system that is becoming always more international.

In the trend area with a special fitting for the "20th anniversary", there are the product proposals for FILO, which explore the aesthetic and narrative potential of the materials inspired by the theme of "Youth".

Consequently we are expecting you at FILO, the only business to business fair proposing yarns of excellence from Italy and Europe to celebrate together the 40th edition. See you on the 9th and 10th of October!
